

Enhance your research with CINAHL® Complete and its pilot feature the Plum™ Print, and access the best article-level metrics available.

The convenient Plum Print widget allows CINAHL Complete users to track comprehensive metrics, helping them discover the hidden stories of research.

The Plum Print widget can be found on any CINAHL Complete content with available metrics. Metrics found in the Plum Print are continuously updated for both new and existing articles and cover articles from over 3,500 of the premier journals found in CINAHL Complete that were published from 2013 onward.

The Plum Print widget visually changes depending on the metrics found in each of the five categories — usage, captures, mentions, social media, and citations — designed to help you make sense of the data.

USAGE
